FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

A Farcical Examination of Hayes' Title to the Presidency.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—SENATE.—Morrill, of Vermont, from the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, submitted amendments to the sundry civil appropriation bill, appropriating $25,000 for the erection of a building for a national museum, adjoining the Smithsonian Institution; $150,000 for the construction of a terrace and grand stairway on the West front of the Capitol. Referred to the committee on appropriations.

The Judiciary Committee of the House had another meeting to consider the Kimmel-Blair bill, founded on the resolutions of the Maryland Legislature, looking to questioning the President's title in the Supreme Court. A member of the committee, whose name is withheld, has been instructed to draw up a report to be submitted to the committee to-morrow. It is known that the report will be adverse to the Kimmel bill on purely legal grounds. The report will be technical, and confined entirely to the phraseology and bearing of the Maryland resolutions, and will not discuss the assaults upon the President's title by other than legal or political devices.

The Senate devoted the morning hour to the consideration of the bills on the calendar. A large number not objected to, passed.

The House is engaged in the civil appropriations.

HOUSE Immediately after reading the journal, the House went into Committee on the Civil Sundry Appropriation Bill. Young, of Tenn., offered an amendment appropriating $85,000 for the construction of the Memphis Post Office, out of Tennessee marble. Ruled out on a point of order.

Young then offered an amendment for the construction of the building out of such marble, provided the cost does not exceed that authorized by law. Adopted; but no final action was taken on the bill. (Recess.)

The Judiciary Committee of the House to-day, by a vote of 8 against 1, decided to report the resolution asserting, in substance, that the 44th Congress was a properly constituted body to count the votes and declare the result of the Presidential election, and that no subsequent Congress has the power to revise action thus taken, nor can Congress confer powers upon the Supreme Court or upon any other body to re-open the questions which have thus been settled.

The Committee will meet again to-morrow to agree, if possible, upon the preamble to accompany this resolution. The vote was as follows: in favor of resolution, Representatives Harris, of Virginia; Hartridge, of Georgia; Stringer, of Pennsylvania; McMahan, of Ohio; Culberson, of Texas; (Democrats) and Messrs. Frye, of Maine; Conger, of Michigan; and Kaphan of New York, (Republicans). Representative Knott, of Kentucky, chairman, dissented, and Messrs. Butler, of Massachusetts, rep., and Lynde, of Wisconsin, dem., were absent.

By Cable to the News.

BERLIN, June 11.—The Emperor sat in an arm chair eight hours yesterday. His appetite has improved.

LONDON, June 11.—MacGahan, the special correspondent of the Daily News died at Constantinople of spotted typhus fever, complicated by epileptic fits.

The Marquis of Salisbury left for Berlin last night.

The Standard's Rome despatch says the Vatican has decided to propose cooperation with Germany for the repression of socialism there, on condition that the Falk laws are modified.

The Post's Berlin correspondent says that Grand Duke Nicholas is disgusted with the pacific turn of affairs, and intends to retire to his estates.

The Daily News' Vienna correspondent says a meeting of the three Emperors is expected after the recovery of Emperor William.

The Daily Telegraph's Berlin correspondent says at the first sitting the Congress will decide whether Greece is to be invited to take part in the deliberations. The only points expected to cause grave difficulties are the war indemnities and annexation of Antivari by Montenegro.

The Daily Telegraph's Vienna correspondent says there is still a lingering apprehension here, although it is difficult to say what is its foundation. Military preparations are being quietly pushed. I am unable to state whether Russia has, or has not attempted, since Gen. Ignatieff's visit, to come to a separate understanding with Austria.

The weather is cold, showery and unseasonable.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian telegraphs that the statement is current at the clubs, and in high political circles, that the dissolution of Parliament will shortly be announced, and that the report finds so general acceptance that several members have gone to look after their constituencies.

The Daily News, in a leading editorial, makes reference to the prevailing belief in an early dissolution of Parliament.

BERLIN, June 11.—The Federal Council unanimously voted the proposal to dissolve the German Parliament.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 11.—The Empress' fever has decreased. Pleural inflammation has not augmented, but the patient is weaker. Prayers were said at St. Isaac's Cathedral for her yesterday.

BERLIN, June 11.—It is thought Nobeling will recover. The recovery of the Emperor is progressing wonderfully. To-day he celebrates the forty-seventh anniversary of his marriage.

Arrests of Socialists continue.

All plenipotentiaries will be here by Wednesday, except the Turkish, who reach the city Friday. The plenipotentiaries will be received Wednesday in the State audience by the Crown Prince, and will be conveyed to the palace in State carriages on Thursday afternoon. The Congress will meet after the transaction of necessary formalities, such as the verification of the several powers of the plenipotentiaries and the appointment of officials. The proceedings will be opened by Prince Bismarck, as president, by submitting his memorandum of the points or resume of the subject to be treated directly by plenipotentiaries, each of whom will receive a copy of this document. The business of the first sitting will be confined to the settlement of the question whether or not the Congress shall invite Greece to participate in its transactions.

Potter Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The Potter Committee is cross examining Anderson.

It is stated that Matthews declines to obey the subpœna from the Potter Committee, and the committee proposes to let the matter rest with him.

Anderson was on the stand giving elaborate details of the manner in which the registration and voting was conducted.

Ex-Congressman Darrell, of Louisiana, was on the stand, and testified regarding his application for the Collectorship of the New Orleans Custom House. First through Anderson's influence, Matthews withdrew his opposition to Packard as Collector, but finding his nomination out of the question, Matthews agreed to support Darrell for the place, providing Anderson should deliver to Matthews certain papers. These were withheld ready for delivery. Darrell was not appointed, among the papers stipulated for was the copy of the Sherman letters. Darrell stipulated to Anderson that in the event Darrell shou'd have office, Messrs. D. A Weber, L. L. Raudall and Thos A. Jenks should be provided for. In this bargain Anderson appears to have made no provision for himself, as he could make a better living as a journalist.

Wm. H. Seymour, Notary Public, before whom the Anderson and Weber agreement was sworn out, and J. Wilder, one of the attesting witnesses, are here. They are here under subpœna.

Ross, master belonging to Philadelphia, from South America to Wilmington, N. C., in ballast went ashore on frying pan shoals near Smith's Island at two o'clock this morning. The position is very dangerous. The vessel is not expected to get off unless circumstances are very favorable. The deck is raised slightly and leaking some; she is nearly high and dry at present. The master and crew are safe. One passenger aboard the steamer Orlando will return to the wreck.

Revolutionists Routed.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW ORLEANS, June 11.—A special to the Galveston News, from Laredo, says a courier brought news yesterday to the effect that Col. Algeria, and one hundred and fifty government troops attacked two hundred Revolutionists under Gorsa Ayala, at a place called Los Ladrones, forty miles North of New Laredo, and after a severe engagement, completely routed them, taking many prisoners and capturing arms, horses, &c. Many are reported killed and wounded on both sides, but details are wanting. There was great rejoicing in New Laredo on receipt of the above news. The Revolution is regarded as a complete failure in this section.

Crop Report.

By Telegraph to the News.

MEMPHIS, June 11.—The Cotton Exchange reports 127 answers from West Tennessee, North Mississippi, North Arkansas and North Alabama. The marked increase in corn, wheat, oats and cotton, gives promise of enhanced crop. During seventeen years past, we have not had such flattering prospects for all crops. The average acreage shows one fifty-seven hundredths decrease per cent; stands are very good, the date of planting averaging ten days earlier than last year; no fertilizers are used.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.

County Convention and Legislative Nominations.

Correspondence of the News.

LEAKSVILLE, June 10.

Our County Convention met last Saturday and nominated Col. Jas. P. Dillard for Senator, and Mr. Wm. Lindsay and Mr. Lindsay Rolly for the lower house, and Mr. John L. Johnston for sheriff. Their choice for the Supreme Bench was John H. Dillard, of this county. Everybody seems in favor of Vance for U. S. Senator, and some say that they will not support any one who will not pledge himself to vote for Vance. Everything looks cheerful, notwithstanding the hard times, and all are now busy with their crops, which bids fair to be the best in ten years.

Sherman and Matthews.

Wilmington Star.

The Philadelphia Times puts the Anderson evidence right when it calls it "a crushing revelation of rascality." That is the way to put it. John and Stanley are now mashed about as flat as if the car of Juggernaut had rolled over them a few times and then turned round and rolled over them again.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Early History of the Institution---Normal College---Connection with M. E. Church---Record of Thirty Years---Graduates---Opening Exercises.

By Special Reporter for the News.

TRINITY COLLEGE, June 10

Last week the public attention was centered on the University, this week Trinity College will claim the attention of a large portion of the people of North Carolina. With Trinity this is commencement week, and those who have attended Trinity Commencements know what they are. When we look at the history of Trinity College we are amazed at its success and present prosperity. Trinity College is in the North west corner of Randolph county. In 1833, an ordinary school was opened here by Rev. Brantley York, D. D. In 1839 the school was chartered as Union Institute and for several years Union Institute prospered greatly. In 1842, Dr. York retired from the school and Rev. B. Craven, then nineteen years of age, was elected to take charge of the school, and the salary for the first year was $200. The average number of matriculates from 1843 up to 1850 was about 105.

In 1851 the institution was re-chartered by the Legislature and was named

NORMAL COLLEGE.

The object of this change was to secure a higher grade of teachers for common and high schools and to furnish a better guarantee of their acquirements and qualifications than could be furnished by the ill-prepared and unpaid Boards of county examiners. A certificate from Normal College was lawful evidence of qualification to teach and no further examination was required. This feature was afterwards thought to be an injury to the school.

CONNECTION WITH THE N. C. CONFERENCE.

In 1851 the college was first connected with the N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church, South. The Trustees made a proposition to educate young men preparing for the ministry free of charge, and the conference endorsed the college and appointed a visiting committee. In 1857 the charter was amended, giving the college power to confer degrees, and to perform all other acts usually performed by literary institutions of high grade. This was really its beginning as a college. Soon after this the Literary Board of the State loaned the college ten thousand dollars. Among the signers of the bond for this amount were the President, Dr. Craven, and the late Hon. Jno. A. Gilmore, a trustee and warm friend to the college. In 1856 the Trustees proposed to transfer the property to the N. C. Conference, and by act of the Legislature of 1858 59, this transfer was effected, and the name changed to Trinity College. Before this the Governor of the State had been ex-officio President of the Board of Trustees, and the Superintendent of Common Schools had been Secretary, thus connecting the college with the state, but by the act of 1858-'59 this connection was severed, all Normal features were annulled, and the institution became a regular denominational college, belonging to the Methodists of the North Carolina Conference of the Southern Church.

THE RECORD FOR THE LAST THIRTY-FOUR YEARS.

We learn from a sketch of the college prepared a little over one year ago, the following facts: The college has been in existence a little over thirty-four years. During that time it has lost a little over six thousand dollars in bad debts. The gratuitous tuition has amounted to a little over eleven thousand dollars; deaths at college, thirteen; expulsions, twenty-five; conversions to God, eleven hundred and fifty-seven.

THE GRADUATES.

The whole number of graduates is one hundred and ninety-eight; of these seventy-eight are now A. M.'s; thirty-four are lawyers; twenty-eight are ministers; twenty five are teachers and professors in colleges, and thirteen are physicians. Twenty-three of the graduates have died, thirteen of them being killed in the late war. One-fifth of the present members of the N. C. Conference were educated in whole or in part at Trinity. Among others the Hon. Wm. M. Robbins was once a Professor in the institution.

The honorary degree of A. M. has been conferred by the college on fifteen persons, the degree of D. D. on thirteen, and LL. D. on two.

A REMARKABLE HISTORY.

Trinity has a remarkable history. It founded itself, and with but few exceptions, up to the present, has paid all its bills. It has no endowment and never had any. It has fought and paid its own way up to its present position of rank and influence in the State. Trinity is proud of its achievements, and well may it be so. The college has done well, and is an honor to its President and those who have labored with him in his work, and stands a living monument to perpetuate the memory of their successful labors. Long may Trinity live to bless the State and the church.

OPENING COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

On yesterday (Sunday) at 11 a. m., the exercises of the present commencement were opened by the preaching of the annual sermon before the Theological Society, by Rev. Frank H. Wood, of the N. C. Conference, and at present pastor of the M. E. Church, South, in Durham, N. C. The congregation was large and attentive, the day beautiful and the services quite edifying and entertaining. Mr. Wood's text was the 7th verse of the 19th Psalm, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul." His theme was "Sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures for Salvation."

He first showed that the Scriptures affirmed their own sufficiency, and quoted from the word of God to show this. He maintained this sufficiency because of the completeness of the Scriptures as a system of faith and practice, because of the support which the claims of Scripture have, because the Scriptures accomplish the end proposed—the salvation of the soul, and give to the soul its best possible development, and a basis to stand upon, with a feeling of perfect security, and finally because they reveal to the eye of faith the glories of the spirit world, and light the fires of immortality on the soul. The sermon was forcible, impressive, and will, no doubt, accomplish much good. The preacher preached well—the people behaved and listened well—the choir sang well; so of course, the opening exercises were both pleasant and profitable. To-morrow we are to have a meeting of the Alumni Association, and an address of welcome by Prof. Johnson, of the college. We expect something good from him. Day after to-morrow the sermon before the graduating class will be preached by Bishop Wightman. The Literary address will be delivered by Governor Colquitt. The annual address before the Alumni by Rev. W. C. Gannon, and Thursday is Commencement Day, a full report of all of which your readers shall have. The programme is an inviting one, and we expect to enjoy it richly.

A VINDICATION.

Letter From South Carolina to Captain Shotwell.

Published by Request.

RALEIGH, June 11

Quite unexpectedly the following letter from a gentleman residing in South Carolina an old soldier, and a faithful member of the White Brotherhood, whose testimony I could not use in my own behalf, at my trial, because he was himself indicted, and whose whereabouts I did not know when I wrote my recent publications. Scores of similar letters have reached me since then; but Mr. Holland's evidence, tendered all unsolicited as it is, I desire should be seen by my friends, generally; and I shall be obliged to you for its insertion.

Respectfully,

RANDOLPH A. SHOTWELL.

JONESVILLE, UNION CO., S. C., June 3 1878.

My Dear Sir—Having read some of your articles in your controversy with Col. Means, in the Southern Home, I concluded to write to you and call to your remembrance some things, or rather conversation, that occurred a few days before the raid on the Star office. I was sent from Webster's Klan to see you in relation to getting up a raid on Rutherford. You were decidedly opposed to the klans coming at all to Rutherford, and bitterly opposed to any thing being done. You said (as the Radicals had boasted that the klan was afraid to come to town,) that they (the klan) might ride through the village, but molest nothing. That is the sum and substance of the conversation that occurred between us. Please, if you can, send me the whole correspondence between you and Col. Means, as I wish to read it all. Yours truly.

GEORGE H. HOLLAND.

THE MERRIMON CARD.

Facts and Expressions in Regard Thereto.

Correspondence of the News.

DUPLIN COUNTY, June 10, 1878.

The point upon which most stress is laid is that Gov. Vance had packed the caucus in 1872, therefore the Senato and his eighteen special friends refused to go into it or to be bound by it.

We presume that it will be admitted that the people have a right to demand of their representatives that they reflect their choice in selecting a Senator. If those who voted for Gov. Vance in 1872 met the wishes of a majority of their constituents, who has any right to complain? That they did is incontrovertible, because no word of complaint has ever been heard against one of them.

But how is it on the other hand? Did those eighteen who refused to go into the caucus, and to be bound by it, reflect the sentiments of their constituents? I can answer for one. Col. L. W. Humphrey, one of the Senators from Duplin and Wayne, did not. He would never have been elected if it had been known in Duplin that he was opposed to Governor Vance, or would refuse to go into the caucus or to be bound by its action. No one can be elected there now if opposed to him. That county gives 950 Democratic majority, and her Conservative voters are almost a unit for Vance. Inevitable defeat will be the consequence if an anti-Vance man is put in the field there. What is true of Col. Humphrey and his constituency is doubtless true of the other seventeen. Only one, I think, has been elected since. In view of these facts, how foolish to talk about Gov. Vance having packed the caucus in 1872!

But the Senator says he will retire if a majority of the people are against him. Well, the above facts ought to satisfy him. But the people do not intend to be misunderstood about this matter. Aroused by the disregard of their wishes by the Senator and his eighteen friends in 1872, they began a movement in 1876 which placed Gov. Vance in the Gubernatorial chair, but which they will not permit to end until he occupies the position from which the insubordination of the Senator and his eighteen special friends excluded him in 1872. To this end the people are speaking out all over the State. It is their work. They are determined that there shall not be eighteen professed Democrats in the next Legislature who will refuse to go into the Democratic caucus and to be bound by its action. The people do not intend to be bull-dozed and to have their wishes thwarted in this matter. Who has a right to complain?

DEMOCRAT.

Fun For Radicals.

Statesville American, R p.

We learn from a private letter from Raleigh that the Vance-Merrimon fight is waxing warm. Vance, we learn, has recently been to New Berne to head off a movement for Merrimon in that section, and Judge Merrimon will soon issue a letter simultaneously through the two Democratic "organs" in Raleigh, a long card to the public denouncing those who allege that he was in league with the Republicans who elected him United States Senator, and pitching into Vance with gloves off. "On McDuff."

Nag's Head.

Elizabeth City Economist.

Dear old Nag's Head! Hallowed by a thousand memories that stir the deep foundations of the heart, its annals woven with personal recollections that thrill the soul, the summer home where our fathers loved to linger, where our childhood was nurtured, where summer friendships ripened into life-long attachments, where heart oft-times met heart responsive to the earliest, first and fondest touch of love, and where oft-times, too, alas! too often, the rigid heart was unresponsive to all the wild and burning agony of love: great, eternal burial place of dead joys and sorrows! could thy everlasting hills be voiced with speech, and every tongue unfold the tender story told at eventide by lovers' lips, or broken accents heard by whispering breezes of the night in that sweet, fond embrace where lips meet lips, and hearts and hands afire with love are moulded into one, the air, the sound, the sea, and all that in them dwell, would pause in wonder at the strange diapason of melody.

THE SENATORSHIP.

Why Governor Vance Must be Elected---His Claims Upon the Party.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, June 11.

When in 1872 John Pool left Washington City for North Carolina to conduct the canvass for his re-election to the U. S. Senate, O. P. Morton hobbled to the doors of the National Hotel with him to take his leave and give final instructions, and in two feet of where I was standing uttered these words:

KEEP VANCE AWAY.

"Well, good-bye, old fellow; come back if you can, but if you can't come DON'T LET VANCE COME." How these instructions were carried out to the letter the history of the campaign is too fresh in the memory of us all, and probably not referred to with pleasure by many of the participants.

DO WHAT YOUR ENEMY OPPOSES.

If it is policy in war to do what our enemies do not wish us to do, so it is Phyrus-like to learn wisdom from our adversaries, and be sure to accomplish that which they endeavor to prevent our doing. Gov. Vance to-day is the most objectionable man in the United States to the bloody-shirt party, and to send anybody else to the Senate from North Carolina would be a half Radical victory. There is no gainsaying or denying this.

RADICAL MALIGNITY.

The evidence is before you in the manner of his rejection when elected under the shadow of his disabilities. In the denial by the Secretary of War to restore his public records, and all the press of the opposition emptying the seven vials of their wrath upon his devoted head.

THE CHOICE OF GOOD DEMOCRATS.

It is his due by the right of a previous election, but denied by Radical partisanship once, and cheated out of it by Radical machinations the second time. All the twaddle of individual favoritism and the ambition of other aspirants must of necessity see the folly of any other choice at this time, and if we are true and legitimate Democrats, with a pride in the genealogy of the party, true and not bastard-like national councils by the representative man of this decade.

TAXING THE DRUMMERS.

Views of the Smithfield Merchants.

Reported Specially for the News.

SMITHFIELD, June 10.

QUESTION.

Are you in favor of, or opposed to the proposition to tax drummers $500 so as to prohibit them from doing business in the State, and what are your views on the subject?

ANSWERS.

J. G. Gurley, liquor and groceries; W. G. Yelverton, liquor and groceries; J. B. Alford, liquor and groceries; Wright Blow, liquor and groceries; and S. R and J. A. Morgan, buggy and harness, are all in favor of letting the tax remain as it is.

Adams, Peacock and Bro., groceries; S. Woodall, dry goods; J. T. Cobb, dry goods; and J. C. Hora, druggist, say let the tax remain as it is on strictly wholesale drummers, but are in favor of a tax of $1.000 on retail drummers.

B. A. Woodall, dry goods, declined to express an opinion, and J. A. Menter, in the same line, had formed no opinion.

Fire in Rutherfordton.

Correspondence of the News.

RUTHERFORDTON, June 9.

At about 12.30 o'clock to-day the alarm of fire was given and almost the entire village rushed in the direction of the alarm. It was found to be a livery stable owned by Mr. H. D. Carrier and rented by W. S. Guthrie, which was on fire. The fire was discovered too late to be subdued until the livery stable, a wagon shop, and two adjoining stables were consumed. Mr. Guthrie lost seven mules in the burnt building—two wagons were also burnt. The adjoining stables and the shops were none of them valuable buildings. It was with considerable difficulty that one or two dwellings and the Presbyterian Church were saved, there being a lively breeze in the direction of those buildings.

The citizens worked manfully to extinguish the flames, and the colored population were no less active than the whites, and when we remember that most of them had nothing whatever at stake, we are disposed to give them the more credit for their valuable services.

Franklin Senator.

Asheville Citizen.

A true man has been nominated for the Senate from our old district, composed of the counties of Franklin, Nash, and Wilson, in the person of Capt. W. S. Harriss. In the dark days of radicalism, in the face of certain defeat, Capt. H. worked ably and earnestly in the lead of Democracy never faltering but always detailing, destructive blows to the enemy. As much to him as to any living man is our final triumph in that section and when the victory was won, he voluntarily retired and permitted others to reap the fruits. Now the people of splendid old Franklin have called him to the front as her Senatorial standard bearer, and nobly will his duty in the field and the Senate be done. We are always rejoiced to see such true men rewarded and the selection of no man for any office in the State can please us more than that of Capt. Harriss.

The Convention.

Concord Sun.

In the first place the convention should look to the gentlemen who have been put forward and compare not only merit, but the relative amount of strength thus far shown for each individual candidate and the ones who have been endorsed by their people, should meet with that favor that they merit. This is, to say the least, democratic. We of the west think we deserve a representative and are not disposed to dictate to any other section. We suggest that Judge D. Schenck receive the attention at the hands of the convention that the people of the West say he deserves.

Independents.

Reidsville Times.

We tell the people to do now what they intend to do. There must be no afterclaps to the county convention at Wentworth. There must be no hope of independent candidates. We can't afford that sort of business in this county. Independent candidates in politics are never to any purpose save to the utter demoralizing of the county they seek to represent.

Primary Elections.

Piedmont Press.

In order that the farmers of Catawba county may freely exercise their will in the nominations that are to be made at our county convention, two weeks from to-day, June 22nd, we will suggest that each township hold what is generally called a "Primary Election." The chairman of the County Executive Committee has ordered township meetings to be held on Saturday, the 15th of June, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the county convention.

The Convention.

Concord Register.

Since the withdrawal of Judge Schenck for the office of Chief Justice, the choice of Cabarrus has fallen on Judge Smith, whose purity, ability and nobility are equal to the greatest jurist the State has ever produced, and as the choice of the East, we declare for Howard, as worthy to wear the judicial robe with the judicial trio, and the next and first choice of Cabarrus, and the united west, for Associate Justice is our own Judge David Schenck.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

FORTY-FOURTH COMMENCEMENT.

Exercises of the Second Day---Competitive Declamations---Awarding Medals---Annual Sermon by Dr. Henson---Eminent Alumni.

By Special Reporter for the News.

WAKE FOREST, June 11.

In 1834 the State Association of the Baptist Church established, with Rev. Samuel Wait, President, the institution of learning whose forty-fourth commencement is now in progress.

Wake Forest College is too well known to want any extended notice of its establishment and [illegible]

GRADUATES OF THE COLLEGE.

It is a religious institution, and has given to the cause of religion Dr. A. A. McDowell, President Baptist Female Seminary at Murfreesboro; Dr. M. T. Yates, Missionary to China; Dr. T. H. Pritchard and others. It is no less celebrated for the aid it has given the law and the cause of education; viz.: Hon. Jos. J. Davis, Col. W. L. Steele, Hon. C. C. Clark, Hon. P. H. Winston, the entire Faculty of the Institution, and many teachers, lawyers and business men who are proud to point to Wake Forest as their alma mater.

The weather is all that can be desired, and the opening exercises last night were well attended—very pleasant and instructive.

DECLAIMERS AND SUBJECTS.

Tuesday night was the appearance of the competitive declaimers, who were:

1. Mr. J. M. Davis, Hendersonville, N. C. Subject: Demosthenes.
2. Mr. C. A. Rominger, Salem, N. C. Subject: Imagination.
3. Mr. H. Y. Allen, Granville, N. C. Subject: Decisive Integrity.
4. Mr. S. M. Poteat, Yanceyville, N. C. Subject: Excelsior.
5. Mr. M. V. McDuffie, Fayetteville, N. C. Subject: Consecration.
6. Mr. J. T. Alderman, Sampson Co., N. C. Subject: Lafayette.
7. Mr. B. C. Moore, Anson County, N. C. Subject: The Honored Dead.
8. Mr. J. N. Holding, College Hill. Subject: The Closing Year.
9. Mr. S. C. Herren, Waynesville, N. C. Subject: "Curfew Shall not Ring To-Night."
10. Mr. C. R. Strickland, College Hill. Subject: Virginia.
11. Mr. J. F. McMillan, Robeson Co., N. C. Subject: Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua.

Up to this writing the Judges have not decided who was successful, and the opinion is that all did well enough to get it.

MEDALIST OF THE PHILOMATHESIAN.

The Philomathesian Society has awarded the debater's medal to Mr. W. T. Lewellyn, of Surry county. The medal was made by Mahler, and is a Maltese cross, in which is set the Greek letter "phi." The design is beautiful and the work tastily done.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES.

The Trustees met this evening, but their action is not yet known.

THE ANNUAL SERMON.

The exercises of to-night will commence at eight o'clock, when Dr. P. S. Henson, of Philadelphia, will preach the annual sermon to the graduating class.

PERSONAL.

We notice prominent among those present inspecting the buildings and selecting the site for Science Hall, Hon. John Kerr, Col. Heck, Dr. Pritchard, Rev. C. T. Bailey, of the Recorder. The entire faculty of the college are looking well, after the fatiguing labors of the year, and are especially cordial in attending to visitors and arranging for their comfort.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PRESS.

We notice the following newspapers represented: Recorder, Observer, News.

Manager McMilan has our thanks for courtesies extended.

SUBJECT OF THE SERMON.

By telegraph to the News.

Rev. P. S. Henson preached the annual sermon to-night before the graduating class, from John IVth ch. and 17th verse, the theme being the law of the highest human development; first, of the nature of it; second, the importance; third, the means for securing it.

Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

To County Officers.

H. A. Gudger, principal of the Institution for the Deaf Dumb and the Blind, has issued a circular to the county officers, calling attention to the fact that the session of this institution begins on the 11th of September, and asking for information concerning deaf and dumb and blind children. All such, unless of imbecile or unsound mind, or of confirmed immoral habits, will be admitted, free of charge, the only requirement being that they shall furnish their own clothing. If unable to do so, the county must furnish $25 for that purpose. All persons who know of deaf and dumb or blind children are requested to communicate the information to the principal of the institution.

Anderson's Testimony.

New York Times, Rad.

Anderson's credibility as a witness is easily demolished. The testimony that rests upon his word must be corroborated before it can be accepted as having any real value. But the documents he supplies cannot be disproved or explained away by showing from his own mouth that he is a liar, actuated from first to last by base motives. Mr. Sherman's authorship of the letter attributed to him is not disproved by the revelation of Anderson's guilt. Mr. Sherman's equivocation, with the document in his hand, contrasts so painfully with his positive declarations to newspaper correspondents, and his valiant challenge to the committee, that he must now establish the falsity of the paper, or submit to the unfavorable interpretation which the circumstances suggest.

Hand to Hand.

Goldsboro Messenger.

All that is necessary is that we stick together, and present to the enemy an unbroken front. Hand to hand, shoulder to shoulder, heart to heart, our solid Democratic phalanx need but advance its banner and we may look forward to a triumph as grand as it is imperatively necessary to the peace and prosperity of every community.

MARTIN and Washington counties declare for Hon. P. H. Winston, for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

HARMONY of action and firmness of purpose have won all the victories of which the glorious Democracy boasts.

Thomas Winans, the Baltimore millionaire and Russian railway contractor, died at Newport, Rhode Island, Sunday night.

IN the strength and unity, the permanency and endurance of the Democratic party is the hope of the people and the future of the Republic.

THE ringing resolutions of Democratic conventions in the season of this campaign opening time betoken no dissolution of the North Carolina Democracy.

OF fifty-nine delegates on the excursion train from Shelby, forty-six were in favor of Vance and nine for Merrimon for United States Senator. Four didn't vote at all.

A very severe wind and hail storm prevailed in the vicinity of Augusta, Georgia, on the 9th; a gin manufactory was blown down; outhouses and fences prostrated; and crops destroyed by the hail stones. Three white children are reported to have been killed.

The Roanoke College quarter centenary anniversary commencement and students' re-union began at Salem, Va., Sunday. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered before the graduating class by Rev. G. W. Blagden, D. D., recently of the historic old South Church of Boston. The audience was very large.

HERTFORD COUNTY, the home of Hon. William N. H. Smith, through a large and representative meeting of the neighbors and friends who have known him for a life-time, who have delighted to honor him in the past and who cherish the purpose to honor him now, declares, in the terms of a mother proud of the achievements of her son, for the renomination of the Chief Justice.

Hon. Jesse Franklin Graves.

The Charlotte Observer, in presenting the name of Colonel J. F. Graves, nominated for Judge of the Seventh Judicial District, on Saturday last, says of the distinguished gentleman: It is a most admirable selection. Mr. Graves is a grand-son of the late Governor Jesse Franklin, and besides being a first-class lawyer, of marked learning, extensive experience and unsullied public and private virtue, is withal kind, courteous and amiable, patient and laborious and has passed the vigesti annorum lucubrationes. In a word, as a learned lawyer and a Christian gentleman, he will reflect the highest honor on the convention, and will, we predict, as far as in him lies, restore the judiciary to its ante-bellum standard.

The Summer Gatherings.

This is the season for commencements as well as conventions. Both Wake Forest and Trinity come off this week, and full reports are published in the News every morning.

These educational institutions all give evidence of more thrift and enterprise than one has reasonable ground to expect in times like the present, considering their utter prostration and almost total destruction during the war, and too much credit cannot be given those gentlemen in North Carolina whose labor it has been to look after the interests and restoration of her colleges since the war. Public education may be said to be fairly on the way among a people who have numerous and thrifty colleges, but where they are not, public education for the benefit of the poor as well as the rich, does not thrive.

The special News Reporter from Trinity presents an interesting history of that Institution, and does Dr. Craven the credit of having built up one of the colleges of the State, from a beginning that did not in his early efforts promise the Trinity of to-day.

Wake Forest has often been written. It is one of the cherished institutions of the country, and under the guidance of its venerable and good President, has proven an instrument of religious as well as moral and intellectual benefit to the age. This is the forty-fourth commencement.

Gas Competition.

There is an enterprise on foot to furnish the citizens of Raleigh with gas-light for a reasonable amount of money, and the opportunity ought to be embraced, now and immediately.

The proposition looks to the establishment of new gas works, and the scheme is not only perfectly feasible, guaranteeing a good return to those who shall invest their money in it, but it promises to free the people from the Hobson's choice to which they have so long been subjected, and because of which only source of supply, they have had to defend themselves against high

The times are entirely too [illegible] off their metres alike and practical for a people to submit to dependence on one source of supply of an article of such prime necessity, and which it is as impossible to do without, or make light of, as Raleigh gas, in point of its cost at least, and when Mr. Merrill's people send him out with a proposition to supply them with gas at three dollars and a half per thousand, they are not likely to neglect so brilliant an opportunity.

The Journalism for To-Day.

Ashore or at sea, in sunshine or in storm, whether in quarantine at Mrs. MacStinger's, or in the enjoyment of liberty and repose under the protection of the little wooden midshipman at old Sol. Gill's, it was the intimate and unshaken belief of Captain Ed'ard Cuttle, that Jack Bunsby, mariner, was a man who had an opinion, and having one "could give an opinion as was an opinion."

The public mind is now much in the condition respecting the public press, as was Captain Cuttle regarding his friend Bunsby. The press is looked to for an opinion. No matter what subject may come up for discussion and public attention, the people look for an expression of opinion on the part of the press, and the public requirement is that it shall be promptly and plainly expressed. Not that the people are not capable of making their own opinions, and holding correctly on most matters of public concern, but they look to their newspapers to find if the intellectual lights for the guidance of the public mind are kept bright and burning, for, some how or other, the American people rest much of their hope of safety, and the permanency of their free institutions on the press.

A mere transcript journalism does not do for to-day. A simple news bulletin is not what the people want. In a land of liberty regulated by law, they look for a news press seasoned with the solid comment of the hour. Should danger approach from any quarter the public mind looks for the alarm first to come through the columns of a conscientious journal devoted not alone to the information of the people, but to the advocacy and maintenance of the sound political principles which underlie our form of government.

It is in obedience to this public will and the demands of the hour that the News does not hesitate to express the opinions it forms on all questions of the day. Devoted to the advocacy, interests and principles of the Democracy, it holds opinions on all matters affecting in any way those principles, and gives no undecided expressions regarding the duty of every one to maintain the organization of the Democratic party. And when, in its judgement, that organization is assailed, or in danger of assault, from any direction, it is pledged to speak out in the positive terms of a settled purpose toward a definite object, and under a solemn sense of a high duty specially charged in the manner and means of its performance.

It was in obedience of this sense of public duty that the News has devoted much time and space to a fair presentation and impartial review of the card of Senator Merrimon, in the performance of which duty it has nowhere drawn the line of popular prejudice or personal favor between two prominent, and as it believes, meritorious gentlemen of the Democratic party. Charged as it was with defending and maintaining the organization of the party, and recognized as an exponent of Democratic sentiment, the News has nowhere hesitated to say that the effect of a publication like that referred to was calculated to work mischief in the Democratic ranks, or that as between the two gentlemen under consideration, Governor Vance was the popular favorite, and this without offense or meaning to be invidious to the other distinguished gentleman, whose popularity in the State no one despises for would in any manner destroy.

The State Convention.

The grand gathering of the Democracy of North Carolina is looked to with anxious solicitude on the part of Democrats everywhere, and by Republicans in the hope that out of rivalries may spring party dissensions of which they may be able to take advantage.

But no such hope need allure them No fear of unwise action or party madness should trouble the good people of this State who are looking to the future greatness and glory of the Commonwealth under the auspices of the great Democratic party, and who cherish no hope that is not bound up in that organization. There is positively no danger of dissension or disaster. The gentlemen whom the people have sent to Raleigh on this occasion are messengers on business, and they come in earnest. They come from a constituency with whom they could not afford to trifle, and they will discharge the duty to the Democratic party which they are sent to perform.

Upon the subject of our State Convention, whose delegates are now assembling in this city, that faithful old sentinel on the watchtower, the Hillsboro Recorder, after its vigilant watchfulness of more than half a century, appreciating the dignity, purpose and permanency of that public sentiment which has ever been the striking Nor h Carolina characteristic says:—Apart from the importance of harmony in the creation of a tribunal of such supreme consequence to the well being of the State, and which can only be attained by manfully laying aside all individual demands, and submitting with cheerful alacrity to the pronounced sentiment of the majority, is the equal importance of entering upon a campaign with views long beyond the limits of its immediate purpose. The verdict of an election in North Carolina, for whatever purpose, will be taken as the imprint of the popular mind; and with whatever voice [illegible] the State speak now, so of other States. It is gratifying testimony to the moral power of North Carolina that a leadership in opinion has been assigned in her which cannot be explained away by priority in her action. It is a testimony to the thoughtful, deliberate, unimpassioned consideration which is impressed upon all her movements, and the unflinching resolution with which her purpose, when resolved upon, are carried into effect. As it was in war, sluggish to move, yet when aroused, bold, resolute and tenacious to acieve; so it is in her political enterprises. Right or wrong, her people move with undeviating step to the goal of their purpose.

Advance of Science.

The advance of science within the last decade has been so truly wonderful that many are ready to exclaim that nothing is impossible. Price $1 a box, sent post-paid. *

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial orgrn of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Keep Cool.

This is a bit of good advice in these "trying" times. 'Tis also a suggestion easy to follow, since by investing in Blake's Ice, the purest and best, one can have a luxury to cool a fevered brow or a parched throat. In our climate ice has a thousand uses and is a necessity. *

A CARD.

A gentleman who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, free of charge. Grape Culture and Wine.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, one of the largest grape producers in the east, commenced only a few years ago in a small way, to make wine from currants, blackberries, and other fruits. He now controls large vineyards from which his famous Port Grape Wine is made, which chemists and physicians say rival the world to its beneficial effects in weak young and aged persons.

There is Trouble in Store.

For those who neglect to rectify irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, which they foolishly imagine will "come right of themselves." On this silly error such persons are usually disabused by the development of some serious chronic malady, ITs cable to what they were pleased to consider a trifling disorder of the above named associate organs. Such a culmination is easily avoided. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters invariably has the effect of renewing the secretive action of a torpid liver, restoring healthy digestion and assimilation, and rendering the habit of body perfectly regular. The activity of these important functions being restored, and the entire system toned and regulated by this incomparable corrective and invigorant, no danger to the general health is to be apprehended from causes which, if not eradicated in time, will assuredly undermine it. ju11-6t ——Quite a party left for Wake Forest yesterday. The train to-morrow morning leaves at 8 a. m. Tickets are sold at 75 cents each.

——The Treasurer of the State has issued drummers' licenses to Richard Perrin & Co., Baltimore, and Lewis H. Blaine & Co., Richmond, Va.

——The train from Shelby, over the Carolina Central and Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railways, to this city last night, was the first through train over those roads.

——The merchants have organized a base ball club, and picked nine of this played a match game yesterday with some younger amateurs. The merchants won by a score of 13 to 12.

——The pupils of the colored department of the D. D. & B. Institution gave an entertainment last evening at Metropolitan Hall. The affair was complimentary to the colored citizens of the city.

——The crowd of politicians, each with his own view of the judicial situation, and his pet scheme for its solution, increase rapidly. The long rest in matters political is now broken, for a time, at least.

——The guard house has undergone a thorough cleaning, under charge of the turnkeys, James J. Lewis and W. N. Andrews, and is now in pretty fair condition. The unventilated cells need reconstruction.

Agricultural Resources.

That North Carolina is a State capable of producing anything is a fact undisputed. We are slow, but uncommonly sure. Whatever we do, we do well. In matters agricultural we are not a whit behind the times, but the quantity and quality of our production in this time are an indication of progress. We are led thus to speak by seeing some of the finest specimens of timothy, orchard grass, clover and wheat, from Catawba county, which were sent to the Department of Agriculture by Mr. M. L. Cline, of Hickory. These specimens, as to size and quality, cannot be equalled. If the people of the State will go to work we can make an exhibit of our agricultural products at the State Fair that will surpass that famous one Kansas and Colorado made at the Centennial in Philadelphia.

Arrival of Convicts.

Deputy Sheriff M. C. Williams, of Iredell county, yesterday, turned over to the authorities of the Penitentiary, four convicts, three white and one colored, all convicted of larceny and sentenced to 5 years' imprisonment. Their names were R. W. Whitaker, Jarius White, Frank Alexander and Milton, alias Noah Gray.

Sheriff W. H. Gentry, of Stokes, brought down two convicts, one white, Daniel Hunley, 2 year; one black, Pompey Hairston, 2 years, both larceny.

Streets and Gutters.

The attention of our municipal authorities is called to the fact that the gutters on many of our streets, particularly those in the northern section of the city, greatly need attention. Some are so grown up with rank weeds that they become choked at the culverts, so that the water floods are forced to find a way in the street. The consequence is that a portion of Halifax street, once in good repair, has washed out. Let the new Street Commissioner look after these matters.

The Storm at Henderson.

The terrible storm of Sunday, was not, it seems, confined to our county, for we hear of a tornado swooping down on the town of Henderson the same day. The force of the storm was felt only over an area of a mile in length by 200 yards in width. The duration of the tornado was only one and one-half minutes. In that space of time trees were uprooted, and several houses were blown down. The fall of hail was great and destroyed in an instant, almost, the crops and gardens. Fortunately the tract of country devasted was small.

The Carolina Farmer.

The June number of this excellent agricultural journal, published in Wilmington, is filled with matters of interest and use to the farming public. The table of contents in the number will be to such most attractive. The periodical is a long established one, that has for years found favor with the agriculturalists, and keeps up its deserved reputation.

Pardoned.

The Governor yesterday, upon receipt of an application signed by the Judge who sentenced, as well as by numbers of prominent citizens, granted a pardon to Charles Hunter. He was convicted of larceny at the Spring Term, 1875, of Chatham Superior Court, and sentenced to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for ten years. He had already served out three years of the time.

Special care will be given to secure good music for the meetings and this will doubtless be an interesting feature of the Convention.

Each Local Association is entitled to two delegates for the first twenty-five members or fraction thereof, and one delegate for each additional twenty-five members or fraction thereof.

Churches in localities where no Association has been organized are invited to send at least one representative, who will be entitled to all the privileges of membership, except voting for officers. A certificate from the pastor or clerk of a church will be a sufficient credential for representatives from churches not connected with a Y. M. C. A. Delegates from Y. M. C. A. should have a certificate from the recording secretary of their Association.

Most of the Rail Roads in the State will issue half fare tickets to delegates.

Catholic Picnic.

The officers, teachers and scholars, of St. Johns (Catholic) Sabbath School, with a number of invited friends attended a pic-nic on yesterday at the farm of John G. Williams, about five miles from Raleigh. The merry party left the depot at 8 o'clock in charge of that gentlemanly conductor Capt. John W. Horton. The general management of the pic-nic was entrusted to Mr. J. P. Hayes and M. B. Barbee, Esq., President of the School, who performed their duties in a highly creditable manner. The music was furnished by the Italian String Band and Rufe Stanley's, and was excellent. The weather was propitious, and everyone seemed determined to enjoy the day, and to see that everybody else enjoyed it. On arrival at the farm the pic-nickers were welcomed by the genial proprietor and his accomplished lady in a manner that made all feel at home. The rooms were soon filled with dancers, which delightful amusement was kept up during the day. The edibles were abundant, varied and well prepared and keenly relished. Special attention was shown to the guests and strangers by a number of lady members of the congregation, while those who preferred to do so joined in or witnessed the graceful movements of the dancers, others strolled over the spacious grounds, reposed under the umbrageous shade of the grove, engaged in various outdoor games, visited the orchard, vineyard and garden, and took buggy rides.

Father White the beloved and popular priest was present, and contributed much to the general enjoyment by his cheering words and approving smiles.

After a day of unalloyed pleasure the happy party returned to the city about 7 o'clock. We have never taken part in a more enjoyable affair of the kind and join in thanking Mr. and Mrs. Williams for the use of their grounds and buildings and for the kindly attentions shown.

We are also pleased that none of the boys interfered or in any way disturbed "the moles" of which mention has heretofore been made in these columns.

THE D. D. & B. ASYLUM.

Report of the Board of Examiners.

Shortly before the close of the exercises at this Institution, the following gentlemen were constituted a Board of Examiners, and made a careful inspection of the conduct of the school, the progress of the pupils, etc. All have had experience as teachers. The report is as follows:

To the President and Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf Dumb and the Blind.

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, having been selected as a Board of Examiners to examine the pupils of the Institute for the Deaf Dumb and the Blind, on the various branches of study during the session of 1877—'78, have discharged that duty, and beg leave to report as follows:

We began in the Deaf Mute Department on the 6th inst., and devoted 5½ hours to the various classes in writing, Composition, Language Lessons, Mental and Practical Arithmetic, Geography and Grammar. We devoted 6½ hours to the examination in the Blind Department, consisting of Geometry, Algebra, Arithmetic, History, Grammar, Physiology, Philosophy, &c. To the classes in both departments we put such questions as to give a fair and thorough test of the proficiency and advancement of the pupils. Their answers were in the highest degree satisfactory. After the excitement so common to students in examinations before strangers, had passed away they were calm and self-possessed, and showed by their bearing that they were confident of their ability to stand the most thorough tests of their knowledge. The students have been well and thoroughly drilled, and we have no hesitation in saying that the examinations show a degree of proficiency and diligence in study on their part far beyond our highest expectation. Of the teachers of the institution we express our entire satisfaction. They are all perfectly familiar with and competent to the discharge of the very difficult duties of the responsible positions which they have been called to fill. They invited and insisted on the most searching questions. We are entirely satisfied with the result, and do not hesitate to say that the Institution cannot be surpassed. Permit us to say in conclusion that this is owing in a great degree to the earnest and intelligent devotion with which the worthy principal has applied himself to the noble work of which he is the head.

Respectfully submitted,
JNO. C. SCARBORO,
GEO. V. STRONG,
DUNCAN ROSE,
H. B. CARTER,
E. M. GOOLSBY,

The Shaffer Investigation.

The District Judge last night heard Col. Fuller for complainant and Judge Tourgee for defendant in the matter of removal of Col. Shaffer as Registrar in Bankruptcy, on petition of Col. I. J. Young. Messrs. Gilliam and Snow will follow which will close the case.

The effort of Col. Fuller especially his summing up of the testimony struck all who heard it as convincing and convicting.

If the proof is as stated by him, we are at a loss to see how Judge Brooks can fail to remove Col. Shaffer however efficient he may be as a Registrar. If the proof is as stated by Col. Fuller, he cannot be adjudged worthy to longer hold a position he has so wantonly disgraced.

The Ætna Life Insurance Co., is successfully developing a branch of business not generally practiced. This company offers at very moderate terms—from twenty-five to fifty per cent. less than ordinary life rates—to secure business firms from losses by insuring the lives of parties indebted to them. Payment for goods frequently depends upon the purchaser living a sufficient time after the purchase has been made to realize upon the goods. By insuring the life of the purchaser, as provided in the plan in operation by the Ætna, the purchase money is secured beyond peradventure. Partners of business firms are also afforded under this plan an opportunity to insure their lives; the amount of the insurance to be paid at the death of either to the surviving partner. W. H. I have tried the Xanthine, and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff.
W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)
MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.
Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:
I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent toilet a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

LEE'S PREPARED
AGRICULTURAL LIME.
To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $ 00—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per
TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,
A. S. LEE,
